

AFB01-Royal Grand Palace

Half day – Every Morning and Afternoon

Visit the Royal Temple of the Emerald Buddha, Wat Pra Kaew, which once served as the private temple of the kings. Explore the magnificent temple complex surrounded by the glittering pagodas and pointed golden temple spires. Walk along the cloisters where the mural paintings of Ramayana are depicted. Continue to the Royal Grand Palace grounds and visit the Audience Hall and the Reception Hall that inspired the world renowned film and musical “The King and I”

AFB02 – City and Temples

Half day – Every Morning and Afternoon

Visit the three well-known monasteries of the City of Angels. Begin with the Golden Buddha Temple, Wat Traimit, where the world’s largest solid gold Buddha statue is enshrined. Continue to Wat Po, or the Reclining Buddha Temple, the oldest temple in the city where a gigantic reclining Buddha image shows its intricate mother-of-pearl inlaid soles. Observe the first traditional Thai massage school found at the temple. Then visit the Marble Temple, Wat Benchamabophit, an exceptional example of Thai architecture built with Italian marble more than a century ago.

AFB06 – Canal Tour

Half day – Every Morning

Take a boat along the River of Kings, the Chaopraya River, and witness an exotic livelihood of the locals along the canals. Visit the Royal Barges Museum where the main barges with mythical-figured heads are kept and await the unique procession of barges. Visit the Temple of Dawn, Wat Arun, the landmark on the river that harmoniously combines Thai, Cambodian and Chinese architectures and decorations.

AFB07 – Boat & Barge Cruise

Half day – afternoon only

You will travel in an express river boat along cool, winding canals, passing houses, Royal Barges Museum, the Grand Palace, Temple of Dawn and witness rural Thai life. Then take a slow and relaxed; travelling in a comfortable converted rice barge, where one may sip a long, cold drink. Fruits and snack will also be served.

AFB09 – Samphran Elephant Ground and Zoo

Half day – afternoon only

Visit Samphran Elephant Ground and Zoo, 28 km west of Bangkok. Watch a crocodile wrestling show, and an elephant show in which the huge animals demonstrate their working skills, play games, dance and are rounded up after a prayer rite to the forest spirits. Also witness an historical re-enactment of the elephants’ role during the wars of ancient Siam.

AFB15 – Damnernsaduak Floating Market and Risky Market

Half day – Every Morning from 07.30-13.00 hrs.

Leave Bangkok early for the Risky Market in Samut Songkram Province and see how local traders along the railway rapidly clear their stalls for passing trains. Visit a local house in the coconut groves to see the conventional way of making coconut sugar and other coconut products. Enjoy a long-tailed boat ride along the cut canals passing by the orchards and stilt houses. Spend time at Damnernsaduak Floating Market to see locals sell and buy produce from their boats.

AFB21 – Damnernsaduak Floating Market & Samphran Elephant Ground and Zoo

Full day – Every day from 07.30-17.00 hrs.

The day begins at the Damnernsaduak Floating Market then continues further taking you to visit the country’s oldest and largest pagoda, Pra Pathom Chedi, where Lord Buddha’s relics are enshrined. Have a buffet lunch at the Samphran Elephant Ground and Zoo and watch the unique and exciting elephant and crocodile shows. Drive back to the city in the late afternoon.
